

Green Peas
Potatoes
New Beets
New Carrots
Cucumbers
Cabbage
Cauliflower
Celery
Egg-Plant
Lettuce
Green Beans
Water Cress
Bananas
Yellow and Red
Grape Fruit
Cherries
Romaine
Apricots
Watermelons
Peaches
Muskmelons
Oranges
Ber. Onions

Shallots
Sweet Peppers
Paranips
Radishes
Spinach
Asparagus
White Turnips
Tomatoes
Mushrooms
Green Mint
Cranberries
Strawberries
Squash
Alligator Peas
Native Spring Lamb
Native Veal
Ducks
Roasters
Fryers
Fowl
Butter
Cheese

SOMERS BROS.

June 18

NOTICE

Because of the Shannan Building fire I have been obliged to change my office to No. 21 Broadway, Wauregan House, where I shall be pleased to receive my former patients.

Office hours: 8-10 a. m., 1-2 and 5-8 p. m.

DR. GEO. R. HARRIS
may 18

NOTICE!

Dr. Frank C. Atchison
HAS OPENED OFFICES

25 Shetucket Street

June 18

George

Ehrets

Extra

Lager

On

Draught

Today

Wauregan House Cafe.

THE PARKER-DAVENPORT CO.,
Proprietors.

WE DO YOU A GOOD TURN

We never cause you anger. When you order a bottle of Wine or a bottle of Whiskey, or a bottle of Beer, you may be sure that you will get what you ask for at the proper price and not some cheap substitutes.

Schultz' Milwaukee Beer $1 per doz.

MILWAUKEE BEER

Telephone 26-3, 93 West Main St.
April 18

Summer Millinery

MISS BUCKLEY'S, 303 Main St.
mar 18

FUNERAL ORDERS

Artistically Arranged by
HUNT . . . The Florist,
Tel. 130, Lafayette Street.
June 18

A. PECK, M. D.,
43 Broadway.

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

Shall be out of town from July 17th to August 4th, Saturdays excepted.
June 18

The Newest Styles in SUITS and OVERCOATS

We can supply you with the best in style and workmanship.

JOHN KUKLA,
Merchant Tailor, Franklin Sq.
April 18

MISS M. C. ADLES,
Hair, Scalp and Face Specialist

A COMPLETE CHANGE

has been made in the style of Hair Dressing. No longer can women pile cheap 35c rolls and putts on their heads and fancy themselves stylish; rolling effects have gone out, and the hair must be soft, natural looking, and of classic simplicity. One's own hair must be perfectly retained to secure this effect. Have Miss Adles show you the new style. She will be in Norwich week of June 11st.

WAUREGAN HOUSE, Norwich

Boston, New York.
Telephone 104.
June 18

The Bulletin

Norwich, Friday, June 18, 1909.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Fish dealers are featuring fancy Maine salmon.

The past two nights have been suggestive of September.

Meeting of St. Mary's T. A. and B. society tonight.—adv.

Next Sunday will be Grange memorial day in a number of towns.

School pupils rehearsed the story of Bunker Hill on Thursday, the 17th.

Members of the Relief corps from all over the state visited Fitch's soldiers' home at Norton on Thursday.

Frank Edwards, recently admitted to the New London almshouse, suffering from insanity, has been transferred to the Norwich state hospital.

Special prices on sheet music at Plaut-Odden Co.'s tomorrow.—adv.

At Eastern Point, the few beautiful elm trees on the Graveland hotel lawn are infested with beetles, and spraying will begin as soon as the machines arrive for the work.

At the annual meeting of the State Dramatists' association, held in New Haven this week, P. J. Garvin of Bethel was elected president of the organization. About 150 attended.

The Cheekmore club, composed of young lady students at the Williams Memorial institute, New London, are spending a fortnight at a cottage at Best View. The party is chaperoned by Mrs. William H. Osborn.

George T. Sulter has leased the Palmer house at Pleasant beach for the season and will open the hotel at once. It was conducted for some time by the late Charles Howard. Mr. Sulter was until recently proprietor of the Pequot inn, New London.

McClunie, the decorator, is at the Broadway theater, where he can be seen or reached by phone regarding decoration for the 25th anniversary. Phone 467-12.—adv.

Two thousand persons from every section of Connecticut attended the forty-fifth annual convention and picnic of the Lake Compounce Spiritualist association, held near Bristol Wednesday. The session opened at ten o'clock. President Earl B. Kenyon of New Haven was re-elected.

Mrs. Rockwood of Franklin entertained on Wednesday Miss Nellie Dunlevy, Miss Nora Dunlevy, Miss Mamie Dunlevy, and Miss Rena Murdoch of South Windham, and Miss May Kinsley of Franklin. Representative F. A. Rockwood gave the young ladies an automobile trip in the afternoon.

Friends of William Goodwin Troy, a lawyer, of Providence, have received invitations to his wedding with Miss Mary Christine Ryan to take place at St. Mary's church in Providence on Wednesday, June 30. Mr. Troy was at one time engaged in newspaper work in New London. He is a graduate of Harvard law school.

Professor Rogers, brother of the Rev. D. Minor Rogers, who was recently killed in Turkey, and son of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Rogers of New Britain, is one of the two Harvard professors to have charge of the examinations of the students who compose the Harvard boat crews now in training quarters at Red Top, Gales Ferry.

The Bulletin's Franklin correspondent writes: An interesting programme consisting of music, recitations and readings is being arranged by Mrs. William E. Manning of Yantic for the Robinson reunion, which takes place at the Robinson home on Prospect hill, Thursday, June 24. This will be the 25th annual anniversary of the descendants of Arad and Lura Robinson. The descendants now number 143.

One of the fine colonial houses of Norwich which now, as at the time of the bi-centennial, is in the family of the original owners, is the Roath house on Church street, home of Mrs. William M. Olcott, honorary state regent of the Connecticut D. A. R. The handsome, well-kept home stands on the original site of the land of Christ church parish, the property of Bishop Tyler and other ancestors of Mrs. Olcott.

AFTER BARBERS' LICENSES.

Ten Applicants Before Commission—Two From Norwich.

Ten applicants for barbers' licenses appeared at New London before the state barbers' commission for examination. Patrick H. O'Brien of New London and A. J. Squires of Stafford Springs were the commissioners conducting the examination. The other commissioner, John Sica of Waterbury, not reaching the city.

The applicants were examined at the barber shop of William Lewis, the usual examination consisting of each barber cutting the hair and shaving a man was given. The subjects, as usual, enjoyed the privilege of a free haircut and shave.

The applicants were from Putnam, Willimantic, New London, Sterling and Norwich, each place sending two, and from Jewett City and Plainfield, which sent one each.

The terms of the present commissioners expire in July. It is probable that the commission will then be dismissed, as it is planned to have the examination of the applicants conducted by the health officers in the cities, towns and boroughs. The commissioners expressed themselves as considering the plan an excellent one.

Y. M. C. A. Rowboat.

The new rowboat built for the Y. M. C. A. camp at Groton Point was put into the water this week. Inside she is painted steel blue and outside in two colors, maroon and orange. Across the stern are painted the words, "Camp Browning, Norwich Y. M. C. A." and on the stern is the word "Junior," and the association emblem. A part of the camp equipment is to be taken down to Groton Long Point this week.

Parlor Cars on C. V. Railroad.

A new parlor car service was instituted Thursday morning by the Central Vermont railroad between New London and Brattleboro. Beginning Thursday a parlor car will be put on the train leaving New London at 10 o'clock in the morning northbound and leaving Brattleboro at 4:05 in the afternoon southbound.

Want Taft to Play Golf.

Secretary Jensen of the Norwich Golf club has sent an invitation to President Taft, asking him to bring his golf sticks and have a game over the links of the Norwich club during his visit here.

PERSONAL

Mrs. Frank H. Merrill has returned, after a visit of several days with New York friends.

Mrs. Addison Rockwood and Miss Grace Mosier of Franklin were Norwich visitors on Thursday.

Charles S. Fuller and family have returned to Somers after spending a few days at their cottage at White beach.

Jack Gallivan, Chapple McKay and Edward Lawler are to spend the summer at Block Island, going there on June 30th.

Miss Mary F. McKay has returned from New Haven, where she graduated at the New Haven Normal School of Gymnastics.

From this city there were four in attendance at the bankers' convention in New Haven—C. W. Gale, C. Leslie Hopkins, Robert W. Perkins and Henry L. Bennett. Colonel Gale is a past president.

WEDDING.

Twiss-Gallivan.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth V. Gallivan of Monson and Merton M. Twiss of New London took place on Wednesday in St. Patrick's church, in Monson. The church was decorated with palms, laurel and white carnations. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas O'Keefe. Miss Mary McKenna played the organ. The ushers were Daniel Fay and Patrick Daly of Palmer, James McManus of Ware and Felix Callahan of Norwich. The bride wore an empire gown of white satin, and a tulle veil caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a showery bouquet of lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was Miss Louise M. Gallivan of Greenville, S. C., a niece of the bride. She wore pink chiffon over silk, a picture hat and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. The best man was Edward Hennessy of New London. After the wedding there was a wedding breakfast and reception at the home of the bride in Washington street, where the house was decorated in green and white, and there were many guests from out of town. Mr. and Mrs. Twiss have gone on a trip to New York state and Canada and after their return will live at 103 Montauk avenue, New London.

WASHING THE WINDOWS.

Court House Being Put in Proper Shape for Celebration—Janitor Strapped to Window Casings.

The work of getting the court house in shape for the coming celebration has been underway for long time, and now the windows are being washed, those in the Town hall having been completed, and the court room will next get attention.

Samuel Fields, who is assisting his father as janitor, has a new scheme for insuring his safety while standing on the window sills. He has a belt which he straps about himself, and from each side of the belt are screwed up, which fasten into eyelets screwed in to the window casings. The apparatus is tested to hold 200 pounds, and is much handier than the board which used to be placed over the window on which to stand.

C. A. C. Officers Elected.

The Central Athletic club held its semi-annual election Thursday evening in the club rooms in the Stead building, re-electing William Houlihan as president, with the following officers associated with him: Vice president, Tom Brennan; recording secretary, Tim Sullivan; financial secretary, Jerry Desmond; treasurer, Tim Field; and a secretary for 35 years being detained on account of illness, Deacon Fraser, assistant clerk, called the meeting to order. Mrs. Ashby presided over the business session. The association elected Brother Marston to the office of moderator and Deacon William A. Fraser was elected clerk. The clerk and his assistant, Pastor Atha of Groton, read the church letters, which had a cheerful ring. The noon recess was taken, and fully 300 partook of the dinner prepared by the women of the town.

At 1:30 p. m. the Women's American Baptist Home Mission society held its meeting. Mrs. Genung presiding. The report by the secretaries of the junior and senior branches of the society, Mrs. Peckham of Boston delivered a telling address, passing in rapid review the numerous phases of the women's work.

At 2:30, Rev. J. Howard Adams of Pendleton Hill, the newest member of the ministry in the town, presided over the devotional service. Evangelist Flanders sang a solo which was impressive.

The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to a consideration of the work of the Northern Baptist convention and the report of the missionary committee of the association.

At 7:30, Rev. J. Howard Adams of Pendleton Hill, the newest member of the ministry in the town, presided over the devotional service. Evangelist Flanders sang a solo which was impressive.

Election Expenses.

Filed with Town Clerk Holbrook on Monday was the expense of Louis F. Gier in the recent election, as follows: To republican committee, $10; for pasters, $3, and for postage, 20 cents.

Joke on Congressman Hill.

They have a good joke in the house of representatives on Representative Ebenezer J. Hill of Connecticut. Mr. Hill is a member of the ways and means committee; in fact, one of its most vital members. When the Philippine tariff bill was taken up for consideration Tuesday a democrat offered an amendment to the bill. Mr. Hill was on his feet in an instant and spent about fifteen minutes explaining why the amendment should not be adopted. When he concluded his remarks, the chairman put the question, and Mr. Hill voted in favor of the amendment against which he had spoken so earnestly. Incidentally, he was the only member in the house who voted for it, for the argument was so effective that even the other democrats voted no.—Bridgeport Standard.

TASTE and WONDER!

Taste AGAIN and wonder more, for we've merely got you guessing!

It's from the arid waste,
But will WIN your taste;
Straight from Arizona's plains,
It makes its claims.

As taste, and taste again, and wonder STILL that ANYTHING could be so nice as

Our Cactus College Ice

SMITH

The Drug Man.

Franklin Square, Norwich, Ct.

June 18

MURDER REPORTED IN PRESTON

Proved to be Only a Family Fight—Mrs. Max Rubin Having Been Beaten and Fainted—Police and Medical Examiner Called.

There was much excitement in Preston last night when the police were called to a house on Thursday evening and as the result the report reached the city that murder had been committed there and that Mrs. Max Rubin lay dead by the roadside, where she had been left by her husband and brother-in-law. These facts proved far from true, as the woman in the case was walking about the road near the McAvoy place, talking and gesticulating in a manner which convinced the police at a glance that she was far from dead. Her assistants, however, were arrested and turned over to a Preston constable and brought here for the night. Medical Examiner T. G. Harris was called out to the roadside to view the woman and he declared that she was not dead, but that she was in a state of unconsciousness and that she would be taken to the hospital.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

The woman claimed that her husband was the one who had beaten her, and that she had been left by him on the roadside. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time. She claimed that she had been married to him for ten years and that she had been beaten by him for a long time.

HOW TO GROW FAT

A Lazy Stomach the Cause of Thinness, Nine Times in Ten.

If you are thin or lean, have scrawny arms and neck, you can't grow fat unless your food properly digests. People take on flesh in proportion to the nutritious matter which the organs of digestion absorb and pass into the blood.

Just as long as the nutritious matter passes along without being absorbed, just so long will you remain thin. Perhaps your stomach, bowels and liver need a tonic. If your digestion is not perfect, Mi-o-na tablets will put it right at once.

Mi-o-na will cure indigestion and every conceivable ailment of the stomach promptly. It cures by building and toning up and not by encouraging a dried stomach to continue its selfishness and health destroying habits. It promptly drives away sour stomach, belching of gas, heaviness after eating.

The Lee & Osgood Co. sells Mi-o-na for 40 cents a large box, and guarantees it to cure indigestion, sea and car sickness, vomiting of pregnancy, or any stomach diseases and distress, or more.

Mi-o-na is sold by leading druggists.

HYOMEL
(PAINKILLER HIGH-O-MEG)

Cure catarrh or money back. Just breathe it in. Complete outfit, including inhaler $1. Extra bottles 50c. Druggists.

Incidents in Society

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Norton and family are occupying their cottage at Eastern Point.

Miss Dorothy Jones and Miss Castin of Miss Burt's school are spending a week in New York.

Miss Ada L. Richards, who has been the guest of relatives in Boston for several weeks, has returned.

Miss Hanks of California, who has been the guest of Miss Lucas of Sachem street, has left town.

Mrs. Albert Lewis of Jamaica Plains, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. Henry L. Reynolds of Washington street.

Miss Jane McNicol of Boston has been spending a few days with the Misses Gulliver of Norwich town.

Mrs. Sheldon C. Peck, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Charles A. Burnham of Lincoln avenue, has returned to Newark, N. J.

Miss Ruth M. Thayer of Washington just returned at luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Miss Burns of Boston. After lunch bridge was played.

The Wednesday Evening Whist club met for the last time this season at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Pullen, of Lincoln avenue. A supper was served by Mabrey early in the evening after which cards were played. Following the custom of previous years, each member of the club brought a prize, those who brought the highest scores in the evening ice cream and cake were served.

The Trefoll club met for the last time this season on Wednesday afternoon, when it was delightfully entertained by Miss Natalie Gibbs at her summer home at Gales Ferry. Whist was played during the afternoon, after which supper was served. Some of the members returned to Hartford in the evening, while others remained until a later train. In the meantime enjoying a delightful trip on the river in Mr. Gibbs' launch.

Every Possible Facility

It is our constant endeavor to secure for each depositor, whether large or small, every facility possible that is consistent with their needs. We seek to aid all legitimate banking business of our customers so far as perfect safety will permit. An account with this Bank will be a very